Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code Section 6033(e) notice requirement, we estimate that 100% of your contribution is not deductible as business expenses because they relate to the organization's lobbying activities.

No on Prop21 - Californians to Protect Affordable Housing is a state primarily formed ballot measure recipient committee. It is permitted to accept unlimited donations from individuals, PACs, corporations, partnerships, LLCs, nonprofit organizations, and any other sources not prohibited by law. Contributions may not be accepted from foreign nationals without permanent residency status (Green Card holders).

If your contribution(s) to this committee and to other California state or local committees total(s) $10,000 or more in a calendar year, California law requires you to file disclosure reports as a Major Donor Committee. For assistance with your filing obligations, contact the Fair Political Practices Commission toll-free at (866) ASK-FPPC, send an email to advice@fppc.ca.gov, or refer to their website: www.fppc.ca.gov.
